DIARY NOTES

25X1A

ADD/A (Colonel White) [REDACTED]

7 January 1952

1. [REDACTED] and I spent approximately two hours with Jim Garrison and his principal assistants during which time they explained their proposed reorganization of the Procurement Office. The plan looked sound and reasonable and Jim Garrison was asked to submit it to me as a formal request as soon as he could get it ready.

DAILY DIARY

- 7 January 1952 -

1. [REDACTED] OO, telephoned regarding a request of OO's from the Documents Division for an additional vehicle (this would make two) which has been turned down by the Office of Administrative Service for the third time. I talked to Bill Peel about it and explained that the need was real due to FDD's very isolated position in [REDACTED] Building near the Armory and he agreed to look into the situation and see if we could possibly work out something.

5. I talked to Bill Peel about the possibility of selecting some groups to work at [REDACTED] on a temporary basis in line with Mr. Wolf's request of last Friday. At present, he is waiting on [REDACTED] to give him the available space, after which he will try to find a unit to fit into it. It will then have to be taken up with Security and others before it can be finalized.
